BRODHEAD.

Mrs. Mariab Godbey and Jno. Nichols of Perryville are visiting Mrs. J. W. Tate. Over a Carnahan of London was in town Tuesday to see one of our best looking girls. Miss Willie Benton has as her guests from Saturday until Monday Miss Virginia Shumate of Newton Tenn., Miss Bessie Sparks of Mt. Vernon, Ky. and Miss Pearl Collier of Crab Orchard. Chas. D. Miss Ethel Hilton has returned home after spending two weeks in Lancaster. She was accompanied home by her sister Miss Susie, who will remain over here until after the fair. Our roads, under the supervision of Granville Leece are better at present than were ever known. Mr. Leece spends most of his time on them and he is a road man from the word go.

Sylvan and Julian Bordes were in Lexington Tuesday. Mrs. L. B. Hilton is spending a few days with her mother Mrs. J. R. Cass prior to moving to Rowland where Lester assumes the agency there for the L. & R. Co. to-day. Mrs. R. L. Collier of Crab Orchard spent last Sunday with Mrs. J. R. Cass. W. H. Wednesday night "East Lynne" Thursday night "The Great Three Act Farce Comedy Entitled "Wedded but no wife" Friday night "The girl with the Auburn hair" Saturday night "Kit Carson" The great Western Drama. This will conclude their engagement here for this year and if you miss either of these great plays you will forever regret it. The large tent will be found on the Frith Lot just opposite Citizens Bank Building. Come early so as to get good seats. 25cts. gen. Admission, 35cts. Reserved seats Children 15cts. Their big new waterproof tent has a seating capacity of 1000. Show rain or shine, each evening. Curtain rises on first act at 8 P. M.

It is said that Caleb Powers and his attorneys are in reality sorry that Judge Robbins decided to vacate the bench, although Powers swore to so sensational an affidavit. The real design was to get the matter before the Federal Court, if Robbins had refused to vacate the bench. Commonwealth's Attorney Franklin says he will guarantee W. S. Taylor immunity from arrest if he wishes to come to Kentucky and testify for Powers. Taylor says, however, he knows nothing that would help Powers and intimates that he would not come to Kentucky under any circumstances. For a man who, for years, has stood, and is still standing, beneath the shadow of the gallows, Powers indulges in some bold flights of ambition. He says he expects to go back home when he gets out and run for Congress from the Eleventh district.

NEWS ITEMS

On account of agitation everywhere for a reduction of rates, it is said but little construction of railroad lines has been going on this summer. In Kentucky a railroad man said Tuesday afternoon, no tracks for new lines have been laid all season, with the exception of little side coal lines and other lines connecting manufacturing sites to the main line of the road. This is the first summer in years, it is declared, that the railroads have manifested such hesitation in the construction of new lines. When asked for the cause of this condition, a railroad man said: "The railroads are getting 'leary' about this reduction in rates. Down South a reduction in rates has been enforced in a few States, and with the rate as low as it has been fixed the railroads find that they are unable to give the best service and make a reasonable profit. Some sections of the country are settled so thinly that the railroads can run only a few trains a day and then make only a fair profit."

How to Cure Your Piles

If sufferers from piles and rectal diseases would first try a reliable laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin instead of using external salves and suppositories, or having an operation performed, they would save themselves a world of trouble, expense and pain. The reason is that in nine cases out of ten piles are the result of habitual constipation, and when once the constipation is thoroughly cured the piles disappear.

Piles are to constipation what pimples are to bad blood, simply an outward symptom. And just as face lotions aren't half as good for pimples as a good blood medicine, so salves and suppositories aren't half as good for piles as a reliable laxative like Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.

A 50 cent or $1 bottle will prove these claims, and every druggist is authorized to guarantee results. Hundreds of people have written us that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best pile cure they know of, and it is surely worth a trial from you. Not only will it cure the piles but it will permanently correct bowel trouble so that you will have regular movements. It will tone the stomach and make digestion easy for you.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best remedy for constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, flatulency, and all resultant troubles, such as piles, arising from disordered stomach, liver or bowels. Its gentle action and pleasant taste make it especially suited to children and all who are too weak to stand purgative waters, salts and gripping powders and laxatives. A physician is not what pile sufferers need, but steady, easy bowel movements, and these can be obtained by the use of this wonderful remedy. It brings about a permanent home cure at a minimum of expense.

FREE TEST—Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin before buying can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do us we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. Geriatric yet most effective laxative for children, women and old folks. A guaranteed, permanent home cure. THE PUBLIC VERDICT: "No Laxative so good and sure as DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN." The product bears purity guarantee No. 17, Washington, D. C.

John D. Miller will be appointed County Court Clerk to fill out the unexpired term caused by the death of his father, M. C. Miller, as soon as he receives his certificate of qualification. At first it was thought that an election would have to be held this fall to fill the vacancy but after an examination of the law, every member of the local bar whom we have heard express an opinion says that an election this fall would be illegal therefore the appointment will hold until 1908 as no election can be held next year it being presidential year and the constitution prohibits the election of state, county or municipal officers at the time of election of federal officers.

Mrs. Miller, who has so successfully and carefully looked after the office for nearly two years, will again be appointed chief deputy and have charge of the office work.

A catalogue and circular is sent to any one who applies for it. Nearly two hundred families in the county have already received one. Patrons before putting their children into school are requested to read carefully the pages on "Government" and "Expenses".

A list of teachers and outline of new work to be given during 1907-1908 will be published next week.

M. C. Miller, a Civil War veteran, died at his home in this place Tuesday night at 10 o'clock, after an illness of several months. Not since the early fall had he been able to make many trips to his office, and during the winter months was on the streets but very few times. When spring opened it seemed that he improved and his visits to town were more frequent, when it was hoped by his many friends that he would regain his health and strength. But not so. The improvement was of short duration. The body which had been so strong and active for more than its allotted time had lost its strength and could no longer endure the heavy strain. Two weeks ago he took his bed, gradually growing worse until Tuesday night of last week when he passed into a state of unconsciousness from which he never rallied.

But few men could claim a greater number of friends than he, and no one was ever better than he to a friend. For nearly twenty-one years he has served continuously as Clerk of the county court and the handsome majorities which he always received in the many races run is evidence of his popularity.

Besides his good wife, he leaves six children, four boys, Mace, operator at Wigwam, Colo., John D. L. & N. conductor, Scott and Ray, the younger boys who are with their mother, and two daughters, Miss Georgia, the blind daughter, and Miss Bessie. Besides these, he had the McCoy grand-children, which he had always cared for, since their mother's death, just the same as his own.

Short services were conducted at Christian church by Mr. W. H. Cox at 4 o'clock P. M. Wednesday, after which the remains were laid to rest in the Mt. Vernon cemetery. Peace to his ashes, glory to his immortal soul.

We have good authority now that Livingston will be a great railroad center before the year is much older. We always knew we had the best advantages of any other place, and the railroad officials have now found it out as well, and Livingston will come again and be bigger and better than ever. We will get all our good old citizens back and many more. Lots of railroad people have spoken for houses here, and all the houses are full. That means more building and more building means more work, and more work means more money, and more money means more people, and more people means more business from every standpoint. Is Livingston "the" place? Well, you are "tooting" it is.—Mrs. Dee Bryant and children are here from Lebanon Junction visiting their many relatives and friends.—Mrs. Pat Cook, of Fallmouth, is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Jim Wood.—Mr. Geo. Cook led the prayer meeting Wednesday evening.—He is an excellent leader and an interesting hour was spent in serving God.—Jacob Sambrook will lead the prayer meeting next Wednesday evening.—A big crowd and an interesting lesson is expected. Will Ward and family are visiting their many relatives and friends here for a few weeks.—I hear the soft chime of bells. And oh, mystery! for someone tells—of wedding bells.
